News Briefs Gold Price Stabilizes

LONDON (AP) - President-elect Nixon's backing of the official U.S. gold price of $35 an ounce steadied Europe's bullion and foreign exchange markets today.

The price of gold eased off Wednesday's six-month high in European markets, and the dollar strengthened in the foreign David Kennedy, who is to be Nixon's treasury secretary, refused at a news conference in Washington Tuesday to commit the new administration to defending the official price.

His comments touched off speculation the price might rise. But Nixon's chief spokesman, Ronald Ziegler, said no change was anticipated.

Aquanauts Complete Test

DURHAM, N.C. (AP) - Five aquanauts who successfully completed a simulated dive to a depth of one-fifth mile under the sea were being kept under observation today for possible signs of the bends.

The divers, smiling and apparently in good physical condition, emerged at 7:02 p.m. Wednesday from the hyperbaric chamber in which they began their trip Dec. 2. About 50 persons, including three Navy admirals, greeted the divers with cheers and applause.

The chamber was kept dry but increased pressures were produced by changing the interior atmosphere. The divers were subjected to the same conditions they would find in an open sea to depths of 1,000 feet, far deeper than man has ever

OLD MAN WINTER

The Indians lived close to nature. They measured time by the leaves on the trees and the snows in the winter. They did not need to look at a calendar to see on which day winter was due to arrive. If they had had any bills to pay they would have calculated the due date by the phase of the moon. The ways of the Indians had their virtues. In case you have not noticed the leaves falling, winter is just around the corner. The calendar tells us it arrives on December 22--at 8:17 AM, EST. There are many pleasant things about winter, even in the coldest climes. One of the best is the Christmas Season, when there seems to be a spontaneous renewal of faith and hope. And when the holidays are over and we have entered the new year with renewed strength, there is the crowning consolation that each day the sun rises a little earlier and sets a little later; and when the first spring days arrive, we think of the long winter just past, and life becomes twice as sweet. That is one of the virtues of winter. It Leanwhile, as the days grow shorter, is it going to be with your local Chamber of Commerce office. makes you appreciate spring.

A PUZZLING CONCLUSION

It's hard to believe that the text and summary of the presidential commission investigating the violence at last August's Democratic National Convention were talking about the same thing. The text, while accurately describing the abuse taken by Chicago police officers from thousands of hippies, yippies and assorted unbathed, is concluded with a summation that calls the violence the result of a "police riot."

Since this newspaper furnished material gathered and published in The Daily Democrat during the convention to the legal counsel of the federal investigating commission, we were more than interested when the group released its findings late Sunday evening. From what we have been able to read thus far, the commission is man's est companion. did a fairly comprehensive job of detailing some of the has the most and pleasantest every boy in America, and as the Nixon even say, we sure are glad to see our important problems of the must evaluate the constant flow 130 men? activities of the young hoodlums in Grant and Lincoln memories. What we fail to understand, however, is the commission's summary which, seemingly ignoring the much attention to girls and iceman who let the kids clamber facts of its own report, places much of the blame of the thought they were all silly and in back of his truck or wagon violence on Chicago police.

We don't agree.

OLD MAN WINTER

The Indians lived close to nature. They measured time by the leaves on the trees and the snows in the winter. They did not need to look at a calendar to see on which day winter was due to arrive. If they had had any bills to pay they would have calculated the due date by the phase of the moon. The ways of the Indians had their virtues.

In case you have not noticed the leaves falling, winter is just around the corner. The calendar tells us it arrives on December 22--at 8:17 AM, EST. There are many pleasant things about winter, even in the coldest climes. One of the best is the Christmas Season, when there seems to be a spontaneous renewal of faith and hope. And when the holidays are over and we have entered the new year with renewed strength, there is the crowning consolation that each day the sun rises a little earlier and sets a little later; and when the first spring days arrive, we think of the long winter just past, and life becomes twice as sweet. That is one of the virtues of winter. It makes you appreciate spring.

A PUZZLING CONCLUSION

It's hard to believe that the text and summary of the presidential commission investigating the violence at last August's Democratic National Convention were talking about the same thing. The text, while accurately describing the abuse taken by Chicago police officers from thousands of hippies, yippies and assorted unbathed, is concluded with a summation that calls the violence the result of a "police riot."

Since this newspaper furnished material gathered and published in The Daily Democrat during the convention to the legal counsel of the federal investigating commission, we were more than interested when the group released its findings late Sunday evening. From what we have been able to read thus far, the commission is man's est companion. did a fairly comprehensive job of detailing some of the has the most and pleasantest every boy in America, and as the Nixon cabinet. What we fail to understand, however, is the commission's summary which, seemingly ignoring the much attention to girls and iceman who let the kids clamber facts of its own report, places much of the blame of the thought they were all silly and in back of his truck or wagon violence on Chicago police.

We don't agree.

Chicago police were over-anxious.

They had a right to be. There had been numerous reports of assassination attempts at the convention. There were thousands of hippies and yippies milling about in public areas in which they had earlier been denied access. Thomas lost his every race Malone Phone 471-5350. for public office, but lived to see the acceptance of many of the ideas he championed.

He ran against every president from Herbert Hoover Harry S. Truman and criticized every one since.

The peak of his career as a candidate came in 1932, during the great depressio, when he polled 900,000 votes - enough to nake Democrat Franklin D.

Roosevelt take notice. Down to 150,000 votes in 1948, Thomas quit running, and lost leadership of the Socialist party four years later for advocating abandonment expensive

Thomas himself never quit campaigning for his ideas.

In one of his last speeches st vear he blasted President Johnson's policy in Vietnam, for what he called his "picayune' war on poverty, and his handling 13.00-16.00; bulls of race relations. Yet he had been willing in 1964 to go "part of the way with LBJ" because he thought Republican Barry M. Goldwater was "dangerous."

He said he had "some affection as well as some criticism for thyUnited States.' He suggested dissenters wash the flag, rather than burn it.

'I don't like the symbolism of burning the flag of the country I love," he said
